COMMANDO'S FUTURE.

Not at all pleasing news it was to lovers of high-class racing to learn that the remarkable two-year-old Commando, acknowledged to be by far the best of his age as yet shown this year, will be sent to England as soon as James R. Keene realizes that his excellence warrants it. If Commando is good enough for English racing he is none too good for Americans to pay high admission fees to look at and to admire.

This is the drawback to really high-class sport in this country. When a horse shows form good enough he is at once canvassed as a possibility for the English classics. With a continual winnowing out of the best horses, what can be the result to the American turf? Is it to become mediocre? That is the question now agitating thinking men, and that is one of the reasons why those men will advocate Perry Belmont's proposal to the Jockey Club, asking that more weight for age races be placed upon the programs.

There are three great races annually run in England by three-year-olds and upward, of the value of $50,000 each, and it is said that Commando is engaged in every one of these races in 1901. There are also the Derby, St. Leger, Grand Prix de Paris and other very rich stakes for three-year-olds, all of them surpassing in value anything in America, for the Realization has been gradually dwindling in value. The only stake for three-year-olds and upward which we have in America to which one can point with pride because it approaches the weight for age idea is the Annual Champion Stake, value $25,000, which will be run for the first time this year. It is a fixture of the Coney Island Jockey Club, for which that association is entitled to the gratitude of every turfman in the country. It will be run on Saturday, September 8, and such horses as Ethelbert, Jean Beraud, Prince of Melbourne, Chacornac, Disguise II. (now in England), Ildrim, Missionary, David Garrick, Standing, Rockton and others are engaged. The distance is two and a quarter miles, and the scale of weights is favorable at that time of year to an unpenalized three-year-old. If we had more races of this character there would not be so much danger of our racing deteriorating.—New York Herald.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The yearlings from Mr. A. B. Spreckels' Napa Stock Farm will be sold in New York this year by the Fasig-Tipton Company. They will go east in August and the sale will take place on the 28th of that month. There are about thirty of them and they are a grand looking lot. A colt by Ormonde—Atossa, by Dunlop, will be in the consignment and will no doubt bring a big price, as he is a grand looking colt. Superintendent George W. Berry has these yearlings all in fine condition.—San Francisco Breeder & Sportsman.

Star of Hanover, chestnut colt, 3, by Hanover—Star Actress, ran five furlongs on the track at Manchester, England, on June 7, in 58½ seconds, which is a new track record for that course. The American record is 0:56¼ for the straight track at Morris Park, and 0:59 on the track of the California Jockey Club at San Francisco. Star of Hanover is owned by Mr. J. S. Curtis, who also owns his dam.

Manager Fowler of the Newport, Ky., track has been presented by Col. Mark Simonton with a series of color plates of famous English jockeys. Among the riders represented are: T. and S. Loates, "Morny" Cannon, George Barrett, John Osborne, Fred Archer and three other shining lights of British turf.

At the annual meeting of the directors of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club held last week, the following officers were elected: President, M. F. Tarpey; Vice President, Henry J. Crocker; Secretary and Treasurer, F. H. Green; Board of Directors, S. M. Andrews, E. Corrigan, W. S. Hobart and Wellington Gregg, Jr.

There will be considerable racing in California this summer, as the runners will be provided for at Napa, Vallejo, Colusa, Willows, Red Bluff, Chico, Marysville, Woodland, State Fair, Stockton, Oakland, San Jose and Los Angeles—a good circuit.

Gus Straus, Lexington, Ky., has sold to L. J. Haas, Columbus, O., Dr. Barrow, 2, by Portland—Misfit, on private terms. Dr. Barrow showed well in his early spring work, but has never started in a race.

Maj. B. G. Thomas, Dixiana Stud, Kentucky, has sold Mannie Himyar, brown mare, foaled 1894 (sister to Domino), by Himyar—Mannie Gray, by Enquirer, for $7,500. The name of the purchaser is not made public in the report of the sale.

Rose Apple, bay, filly, 4, by Scorpion—Rosa Lewis, the property of E. N. Farrell, got out of her stable recently at St. Louis and fell on the sidewalk, broke her leg in two places, and was destroyed.

E. Corrigan has arrived at Newmarket, England, with his stable of horses, and they will be trained by G. Ashby, who was formerly trainer for the late Mr. Hamar Bass, at Bloomsbury House.

Gus Straus of Lexington, Ky., has sold, by telegraph, the two-year-old bay colt Drogheda, by Russell—Minnehaha, to H. Eugene Leigh, for $3,000, and he has been shipped east.

"Cash" Sloan, brother of "Tod" Sloan, has signed to ride the remainder of the season for the Duc de Gramot in France.

Benjamin F. Anderson, City—You should be paid the straight odds on Schorr's entry in the third race.

At the conclusion of the regular catalogue, the two-year-old filly Ada Beatrice, by Julien—Kittie H., the property of Mr. A. B. Miller, was sold for $10 to a cash purchaser.

JUNE AND OTHER FORM BOOKS.

June books of Form Charts in paper cover are on sale. They contain all the Form Charts of all tracks from June 1 to June 30, inclusive. Price $1.00.

MISS BENNETT'S QUICKSTEP.

George C. Bennett's champion two-year-old filly of the west, Miss Bennett, made a field of more than ordinary two-year-olds look cheap in the Quickstep stakes at Washington Park yesterday.

This handsome daughter of Russell-Memoria was conceding weight to all of the other starters and the so-called talent figured that this was too much of a task for her and in the betting made Golden Age favorite over her at 6 to 5, while 3 to 1 was freely offered against Miss Bennett.

In half mile races, which is the distance of the Quickstep, the inside horses have all the best of it and it happened that Miss Bennett's position was second from the inside and as Mr. Dwyer made almost a perfect start, and the field went around the upper turn almost abreast, Miss Bennett, who is a quick breaker, got the rail and thereby saved a world of ground. Crowhurst, who rode the filly, took no chances, and by the time half of the journey was over he had gained a winning lead and he never eased up until in the last twenty yards when it was impossible for anything to catch him, winning by about three lengths. Golden Age got carried wide and all mixed up on the far turn and finished a dismal fourth. Harry Herendeen was second and School for Scandal third to Miss Bennett.

The track was about as fast as it can be made, and all of the races were run in extremely fast time.

The Sly race which was second on the program was the most sensational one from a time standpoint. There was a lot of speed in the race, any of the half dozen starters being able to step a half mile in 48 seconds or better, but when Sharp Bird raced out in front doing the first furlong in 11½ seconds, the quarter in 22½, three furlongs in 34 and half in 46½, those that split on the race looked at one another in perfect amazement. Of course after running this fast the first half Sharp Bird tired and fell back eventually finishing fifth. Sly, with Bullman up, laid away and avoided the fast early pace to some extent and when the others were floundering all over the track at the end she appeared to be fresh and good and won with something in reserve in 1:12 for six furlongs.

Cogmoosey, who had a pull in the weights over three ordinary three-year-olds in the opening mile condition race, was figured by many shrewd handicappers as a "good thing" and his opening price of 10 to 1 was reduced to 7 to 1 at post time. Cogmoosey was ridden by J. Boland and he landed him first under the wire by about one length. Florizar beat the betting favorite, Lamachus, a length and a half for second place.

Tommy Knight and Gold Fox are a hard combination to beat, and the pair at 6 to 5 won the fourth event impressively by a half length from Eva Rice, who was keyed up to concert pitch and backed for a killing.

Orimar is the "real thing" in the selling race division, and the way he disposed of Clay Poynter and Patroon in the mile and seventy yards selling race was pleasing to his backers. Bullman rode Orimar and handled him to perfection, waiting on Patroon until the homestretch was reached before he made a move.

Mellocole, backed from 100 to 1 down to 60 to 1 by Handicapper Ed O'Malley, captured the closing seven and one-half furlong race and equaled the track record for the distance.

In race number 19038 the call for Rollins should read as follows:

St ¼ ¾ StrFin.

It the same race the call on Pay the Fiddler should be:

St ¼ ¾ StrFin.

Winner—Ch. g. by Teuton—Marion C.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden. The other three were doing their best. Cogmoosey with a pull in the weights and under a good ride ran a high-class race. He is a flashy gelding and would be a stake horse if he had sound legs. Florizar stayed up close to the leaders all the way and at the head of the stretch appeared all over a winner but under pressure at the end hung a trifle. Lamachus was well handled and had no excuses; he simply was not good enough to win. The Monk ran his race.

Winner—B. m. by Racine—Aurelia II.
Went to post at 3:05. At post 9 minutes. Start good; won cleverly; second the same. Third and fourth driving hard. Sly was skillfully handled and ran a grand race. Bullman got the mare away flying, but took good hold of her in the first half, thereby avoiding the early pace, which was terrific. Bullman never made a move until straightened for home, then Sly went to the front like a flash. Belle of Memphis is at her best and ran a fine race. Headwater found it hard to keep within striking distance in the first part of the race, but closed resolutely. Under a bad ride Algareta ran a good honest race. Sharp Bird is a speed marvel, but seems to possess little or no stamina, and after setting the track on fire in the first half, stopped badly at the end. Princess Thyra acted sour as the post and did not run her race.
Scratched—18941 Bangle, 114.
Sly, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Belle of Memphis, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Headwater, show, evens. Princess Thyra, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

*Added starter.
Winner—Ch. f. by Russell—Memoria.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Third and fourth driving. Miss Bennett was best and smothered her field with speed. She is a grand filly and will be hard to beat from now on. Harry Herenden ran a good, honest race. It was strictly form, as he had a very rough journey in his last race. School for Scandal was right there all the way. Golden Age got away all in a tangle and never got fully straightened out. His race was below par. Admonition is a good looking colt. Lady Schorr was dull of speed and ran disappointingly.
Scratched—(18971) Silverdale, 125; (19003) Alard Scheck, 121; 18465 Benson Caldwell, 121; 18903 Searcher, 111.

Winner—Ch. c. by Silver Fox—Carita.
Went to post at 4:20. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly after a long, hard drive. All of them were extremely busy behind the winner. Knight rode an excellent race on Gold Fox, and the colt did his very best. The boy waited patiently during the early part of the journey and avoided the hot early pace. At the head of the stretch Knight made his move and slowly but surely overhauled the leaders, and at the finish was going away. Eva Rice was especially "prepped" for this race, and she ran as well as it was expected she would, she seeming to be winning at the sixteenth post. Andes is in good form and can win when placed right. Found showed the most speed in the early stages of the race, but after setting a hot pace to the stretch she tired and quit badly. George B. Cox was outclassed and beaten off all the way.
Scratched—13505 Sue Nell, 102; 19004 Barrack, 87.
Gold Fox, place, 2 to 5. Eva Rice, place, 2 to 1. Andes, place, 4 to 5. Found, place, evens.

Time, 12, 24, 49, 1:15, 1:40, 1:44.
Winner—Ch. h. by Sir Dixon—Prairie Queen.
Went to post at 4:50. Off at the first break to a good start. Won well in hand; second and third were driving to the limit. Orimar is in his best form, and under a well judged ride won without an effort. Clay Poynter was fit and ready, had no excuses, and ran his best race. Mark this horse for early action. Patroon was much used in pacemaking, and hung when the pinch came, but at that ran a smashing good race. Sea Knight is a big, fine-looking gelding, and seems to be of the improving kind. Wax is a bad horse. Red Pirate should win about the next time he starts, if in his own class. He had a very rough journey. Sam McKeever seems to be of little or no account.
Overweights—Sea Knight, 2 pounds.
Orimar, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Clay Poynter, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Patroon, show, evens.

Time, 12, 24, 49, 1:14, 1:27, 1:33.
Winner—Ch. g. by Melodrama—Mamie Cole.
Went to post at 5:20. At post 28 minutes. Start good. Won handily after an early drive; second and third were doing their best. Mellocole was cleverly saved at the post, lucky throughout and was extremely fortunate to win. Miss Shanley showed the most speed, but the route was a trifle too far for her and at the end she was tired enough to lie down. Teucer was much used at the post, but eventually got away flying and had no excuses. Henry C. ran a smashing good race. Graziella pulled up quite lame. Free Hand showed some speed, but could not carry it far. Bitter Root ran his race at the post and when Caywood saw he was beaten at the head of the stretch he eased the horse up. Iznik bolted and refused to leave the post, but his rider took him over the route and when pulling up at the paddock Iznik bolted and tried to jump the fence. No damage was done. J. H. Smith ran the winner up to $700 and bought him.

Scratched—15608 Macy, 106; 18879 Chappaqua, 106; 19001 Josephine B., 99; 19005 Lomond, 95. Mellocole, place, 20 to 1; show, 8 to 1. Miss Shanley, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Teucer, show, 1 to 2. Graziella, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Bitter Root, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.
